

RESORT SITTING

A Traveling Daycare

BY BETSY FLETCHER

WHAT BEGAN AS A local after-school program for elementary-aged students has become an enormous “resort sitting” service as well. Originally just called Afterschool Adventure, a big part of the business now revolves around resort sitting, which provides private in-room sitting for tourists and others as well as carefully planned week-end group activities for their children.

Laura Abernathy, founder and owner, started her program 12 years ago, in a small rented space, to care for children after school at Socastee Elementary. That left summers free,
